

Bossier Parish Libraries History Center PRESENTATION MENU

The Bossier Parish Libraries History Center offers fun and informative presentations on a variety of local history, archaeology, and genealogy-related topics for a variety of age groups. Presentations may be here at the History Center or in your local classroom or meeting space.

Local History - Adult and Teen

A Bossier Celebration of Sports
(Part II is also available)

Bossier in Slices: People, Places, and Things: A Collection of stories from Bossier's Past

Caddo Indians, Early Inventors — With model tools

Circus History in Northwest Louisiana: When the Big Top Was Big Time

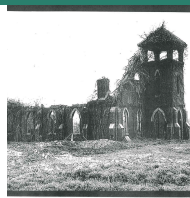

The Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) in Bossier Parish: How African-Americans Built Up Barksdale, Rural Roads, and Managed Natural Resources

Dog-Trot Houses of North Louisiana: Historic, Practical, Possibly Trendy

Education in Bossier Parish: A Photographic History

Haunted History of Bossier Parish

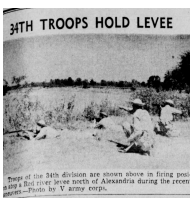

Homemade and Home-raised: Eating Well in Bossier Parish 1910's — 1960's

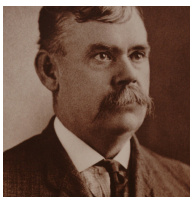

Independence Days: Juneteenth, Fourth of July, and Summertime Fun in Bossier History

Jewish Pioneers of Bossier Parish

The Louisiana Maneuvers: The US Army's WWII Rehearsal in NW and Central La.

Mayors of Bossier City: Leading through Change, 1907 to Now

Memorial Day Remembrances: Images and Stories from the History Center's Collections

Continued ➔

BOSSIER PARISH LIBRARIES

Central Complex/History Center

850 City Hall Drive, Bossier City, Louisiana 71111 | 318.746.7717
<https://www.bossierlibrary.org>

Bossier Parish Libraries Central Complex: History Center PRESENTATION MENU

Local History - Adult and Teen (cont.)

A Musical History of Bossier Parish

Rosenwald Schools for African-American Children: Building a Dream in the early 20th C.

Pierre's Parish: A History of Bossier Parish

Sacred to the Memory: Bossier Parish Headstones — Photos and Symbols

Quilts of Bossier Parish and Northwest Louisiana: The Art of Warmth

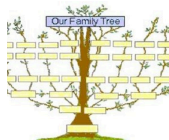

Women Who Made a Difference in Bossier Parish (A Part II is available)

Also available: Bossier Parish Trivia —Test your knowledge of local history, just for fun, no grades!

Genealogy and Family History - Adult and Teen

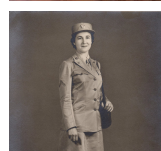

Genealogy 101: Beginning Your Search

Practical Preservation: Making Family Mementos Last

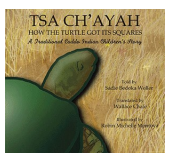

Genealogy and Family Reunions

Researching Veterans in Your Family

Especially for Kids and Students

Caddo Indian story time program with various themes, books, and crafts available

How Archaeologists Work

How Historians Work: Using Primary Sources

Invention Convention: How Inventions Change History

In addition to these topics, the Adult/Young Adult Local History Topics (on front) may be adapted for younger audiences. We can add crafts/activities and tailor presentations to specific ages or grade-levels. Contact Pam Carlisle if you are interested.

Schedule a Presentation

Contact Pam Carlisle, Outreach Historian at 318-746-7717 or pcarlisle@bossierlibrary.org to schedule. Please make your request at least 1 month in advance.