

Exhibit Release Form

I, the undersigned, hereby agree to display the approved works of art or other materials at the Bossier Parish Library for exhibition purposes only.

In consideration of the privilege of exhibiting these works of art or other materials in the library, I hereby release the library from responsibility of loss of damage while they are in the possession of the library.

I understand that the library does not assume responsibility for damage or theft of any items on display and does not offer any type of insurance coverage.

I understand it is my responsibility to set up and take down the exhibit at the agreed upon times. If the items are not removed at the determined removal date, the library may remove the items and place them in storage. The library does not assume any liability for the removal of items placed in storage. This includes damage, loss or theft.
